IV Meetings

- A. The operations of this society will follow the guidelines as specified in "Roberts' Rules of Order." A member in good standing is entitled to vote. There is no proxy voting. Members are entitled to vote on a motion at either the day or the evening meetings.

- B. General Meetings: Not less than eight general meetings of record are to be held annually. The evening meeting is the meeting of record. General meetings encompass both day and evening meetings. Such meetings are to be held at a time and place as determined by the membership.

Motions before the group shall be voted on at both the Evening and Day Meetings.

- C. Annual General Meeting: The Annual General Meeting shall be held at the June Evening Meeting. A minimum fourteen days' notice of this meeting shall be given to all members.
- D. Executive Meeting: Executive meetings shall be held not less than four times annually. A quorum at such meetings shall be five members made up of Table Officers and Chairs. A meeting of the outgoing and incoming Officers and Chairs shall be held in July of each year.
- E. Special Meetings: A special meeting may be called by the Executive or by a member(s)' request in writing, signed by ten percent of the society, setting out the nature of the business to be brought before the special meeting. A minimum of fourteen days' notice of such a meeting shall be given to all members.
- F. Quorum: One-fifth of the total membership, but never less than 15 members shall constitute a quorum for a General, Annual or Special Meeting.
- G. Special Interest Group Meetings (SIGs): Such meetings shall provide an opportunity for all members of the Embroiderers' Guild of Victoria to explore and grow in a specific aspect of the needle arts. Each group shall report to the Executive annually in the specified format.

V Nominations and Elections

- A. The Nominations Committee shall consist of the Immediate Past President and two members at large who shall be appointed by the Executive before the end of February each year. This Committee shall contact the members and ascertain their willingness to run for office.
- B. This committee shall prepare and present to the Executive at the April Executive Meeting, the name of at least one member to be voted on for each office.
- C. The proposed slate of candidates shall be published in the May newsletter.
- D. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the Annual General Meeting. The nominator must have the consent of the nominee and a seconder for the nomination.
- E. No person shall be nominated for office unless they are in good standing and have given consent for the nomination.
- F. Elected Officers shall assume office as of July 1st and shall hold office until June 30th of the following year.

VI Terms of Office

The office of the President shall not be held by the same person for more than two consecutive years. Other office and chair positions should not be held by the same person for more than five consecutive years.
- B. In the event of a vacancy on the Executive (excluding a vacancy as a result of Section 2, sub-section C), a successor shall be appointed by the Executive to complete the term of office. Such an appointment will be announced at the next General Meeting following the appointment.

VII Finance

- A. The fiscal year shall be from June 1st to May 31st of the following year.
- B. The membership shall appoint a reviewer at the Annual General Meeting, upon a motion from the Treasurer. Whenever possible, the reviewer should not be a Guild member, nor someone related to the Treasurer. If no volunteer has been located, the review may be undertaken by at least two members of the Guild not on the Executive.
- C. The Treasurer shall submit the books for review each year. The reviewer shall make a report to the Executive by the end of August each calendar year and this report shall be presented to the general membership of the Guild at the September general meetings. An interim review may be done at any time either internally or externally.
- D. Non-budgeted expenses in excess of a predetermined amount shall require the approval of a two-thirds majority of the voting body. The predetermined amount will be decided annually by the membership at the Annual General Meeting.
- E. The Guild may not borrow money.
- F. The President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be the signing authorities for cheques issued against the funds of the society. Any two signatures shall be sufficient.
- G. There is no remuneration for being an officer, a chair or an appointee.

VIII Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the society, The EAC Board – through the Prairie Pacific Regional Director and the EAC President – must be informed. A financial statement – to include an explanation of plans for the disbursement of the remaining funds and assets must be sent to the EAC President and the Prairie Pacific Director.

IX Additions and Amendments

These bylaws and constitution may be altered or amended by a vote of three quarters majority of those present at the Annual General Meeting provided that any such alteration or amendment has been published and circulated to the members one month prior to the meeting at which the vote is to be taken.
